"Jack Nusan Porter is one of those rare writers who is as at home with scholarly treatises as he is with the popular media . . . His books represent more than just a collection of his outstanding writings; it secures his position as one of the important witnesses of his generation . . ."

—THOMAS J. COTTLE, Harvard Medical School and TV host of "The Tom Cottle Show"

The Jew as Outsider: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives: Collected Essays. 232 pp. $10 (paper); $19.25 (cloth).

"Highly stimulating . . . lucid . . . deserves to be read."

—PROF. WILLIAM B. HELMREICH, in Judaica Book News

Genocide and Human Rights: A Global Anthology. 353 pp. $12.75 (paper); $22.75 (cloth).

"The outstanding anthology on genocide and related human rights violations . . . indispensable . . ."

—PROF. RICHARD ARENS, University of Bridgeport, School of Law

Jewish Partisans: A Documentary of Jewish Resistance in the Soviet Union. Vol. 1: 310 pp. Vol. 2: 312 pp. each volume $12.25 (paper); $23.50 (cloth)

". . . extremely valuable . . . a signal contribution . . . Dr. Porter has helped substantially to close one more gap in Holocaust studies and to dramatize the suffering and resistance of Soviet Jewry . . ."

—PROF. NORA LEVIN, Gratz College, author of The Holocaust and While Messiah Tarried

Confronting History and Holocaust: Collected Essays: 1972-1982. 170 pp. $9.75 (paper); $22.00 (cloth).

"His name is virtually legendary in what has been called the Jewish Student/Countercultural/Radical Movement."
